20 HURT IN WRECK ON NEW HAVEN

8th Edgo Express Jumps Track
near Westerly, R. I.

MANY HAD NARROW ESCAPES

Train Thrown Down Embankment,
Blocking Both East and West Bound
Tracks—Two Coaches Turned Completely Over—Physicians Hurried to Scene to Care for the Injured.

Westerly, R. I., Oct. 27.—Train No. 36, the fast Gilt Edge express of the New York, New Haven and Hartford lines, jumped the tracks about a mile east of this town at what is known as White Dog curve.

About twenty passengers were seriously injured, but none killed. The early reports stated that several persons were killed, but this was not confirmed.

The train was thrown down an embankment. Telephone messages were sent to Providence, R. I., and New London, Conn., for relief trains, and a score of physicians were hurried on to Westerly. New London is sixteen miles from the scene of the wreck.

A wrecking train was sent on from Providence carrying, besides the crew six physicians from the Rhode Island hospital and seven physicians were caught at their homes.

The entire train was derailed, blocking both the east and westbound tracks. The number of injured is not yet known.

Two of the coaches turned completely over when the train was derailed and went tumbling down the embankment.

Boston, Oct. 27.—It was said at the offices of the New Haven railroad in this city that no one was killed in the wreck at Westerly, according to their information, but that many persons were hurt.

EVANGELIST HAMILTON TALKS OF "SHAMS"

Sunday's Service at Tabernacle
Best Yet

The forces of righteousness made a decided advance at the Glen Richey tabernacle on Sunday. The day opened with a fair audience, in spite of rain and mud. Evangelist Hamilton completely captured his audience while he discoursed on the theme, "They again took up stones to stone him."

At 3:00 o'clock, the hour set for the men's meeting, his large, attentive audience that well filled the spacious tabernacle, came from every town and hamlet within a distance of ten miles.

In discussing the subject, "Shams," Mr. Hamilton vividly pictured the things that do not make up a man. He hit the swearing habit, the card-playing and gambling habit, a double social standard for men and women, and the booze evil, striking each in turn a telling blow. His method of handling the liquor question is entirely his own, and his climax brought forth round after round of applause.

Never before did the men of this community listen to so merciless and forceful a denunciation of this unprincipled, un-American and unchristian business. Scores of men, at the close of the sermon, walked to the front and warmly complimented the speaker on his able address.

In the evening the largest crowd that has yet attended the meetings filled the tabernacle. At the close of another of Mr. Hamilton's masterly sermons, a number of persons accepted the invitation to begin the Christian life.

During the day all of the expense accounts, amounting to $1,500, were raised, except $40, and the evening offerings will be discontinued.

Saturday night's and Sunday's services witnessed the turning point in this campaign, and from this on the revival fire promises to burn at white heat.

There will be no services this evening, but services as usual on Tuesday night, and each night during the week. On Tuesday evening he will speak to secret societies and on Saturday evening he will discuss the dance evil.

STRIKE AT ROSSITER

Grievances Not Satisfactorily Adjusted, Men Say.

Eight hundred miners walked out of the Rossiter mines of the Clearfield Bituminous Coal company last week. The men claim that the trouble is the result of a failure of the company to pay for the removal of bony from the coal. Shortage of work for the miners, necessitating the suspension of the labors of car loaders.

TWO ABLE SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS PEOPLE

Public Meeting in the Court
House Tomorrow Night

Tuesday evening of this week one of the most important meetings in this judicial campaign will be held in the arbitration room in the court house. This meeting will be under the auspices of the friends and supporters of Oscar Mitchell, the temperance candidate for judge.

There will be two speakers, both of whom are eloquent, earnest and convincing talkers. Rev. J. H. Keller of Johnstown, will address the people at 7:30. Rev. Mr. Keller is a good talker and those who have heard him discuss the temperance question in other places have been highly pleased with his argument.

DR. HOMER W. TOPE.

Dr. Homer W. Tope, of Philadelphia, will address the audience at 8 o'clock. Dr. Tope is one of the best known temperance workers in Eastern Pennsylvania, and his talk tomorrow evening will prove edifying to the public.

It is desired that every citizen who believes in the temperance movement will be present at this meeting, as the message these men will deliver will prove encouraging to the friends of the cause. Everybody invited, regardless of their political faith.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Farewell Banquet in Honor of Raymond L. Winslow.

The banquet held at the Dimeling Saturday night, in honor of Raymond L. Winslow, who, with his wife will take up their residence in New York city, was a most delightful affair. About thirty of the friends of Mr. Winslow participated in the event and the evening was spent in listening to farewell speeches and the discussion of one of George Sheldon's famous menus.

The words of farewell uttered by the guests were genuine and proved that Mr. Winslow's departure from the town is deeply regretted.

Hallowe'en Social.

The Willing Workers' class of the U. B. Sunday school at Woodland will hold a Hallowe'en Social in Swift's Hall Oct. 31. After an entertainment of recitations, dialogues and music a free lunch will be served. Admission: Adults, 20c.; Children 15c. Everybody cordially invited.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

James Mahaffey to Harry E. Clark, land in Burnside twp., $1,800.
Michael Rodnick to John Worzui, land in Rosebud, $135.
Nannie Brown to Jerome C. Brewer, land in Lawrence twp., $200.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen Not Arrested.

Tokyo, Oct. 19.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of China, arrived safely in Tokyo. Rumors in America that he was arrested at Kobe on a Chinese complaint charging him with embezzlement were unfounded.

HUERTA PLEDGES RIVALS TO PEACE

All Agree to Back Winner of the Election.

LITTLE INTEREST SHOWN.

No Choice of a President Was Expected—Administration Awaits of the Plans—Law Provides One-Third of Total Number of Eligible Voters Must Participate Before Election Is Legal.

City of Mexico, Oct. 27.—Just prior to the holding of the general election all the candidates present in the capital gathered at the National palace at the call of President Huerta to discuss questions relating to the future conduct of the candidates. As a result of the deliberations General Huerta announced his intention to issue a formal proclamation embodying the agreements reached.

These agreements, in general terms, were that the candidates would abide by the result of the voting. Should any candidate be shown to have polled enough votes to constitute his election the others are to assist him in pacifying the country and placing it on a sound financial and industrial basis.

On the other hand, should there not be enough votes cast to fulfill the requirements of the law and the elections for that reason be declared of no effect, all those concerned are to aid General Huerta in every way possible to accomplish the same ends pending the calling and holding of new elections at a future date.

Candidates Were Unanimous.

The conference was attended by Federico Gamboa, presidential candidate of the Catholic party, David de la Fuente, the Liberal Republican candidate, and Manuel Calero, candidate of the Liberal party; Jose Maria Requena, vice presidential candidate on the ticket with General Felix Diaz, General Eugenio Rascon, Dr. Gregorio Mendizabal and Jesus Flores Magon, the other vice presidential candidates. The conference is said to have been very harmonious, all of the candidates pledging themselves to the agreement.

All the preparations have been completed for the election of a president and a vice president, deputies and senators. The registration lists have been distributed to the committees who will preside over the polling places. The police who have been assigned to the various districts have been instructed to maintain a strictly neutral attitude. In addition, about 4,000 troops in barracks will be ready to suppress any attempt at disorder.

Neither the government officials nor the candidates look for any trouble. All the candidates have publicly exhorted their followers to do their duty at the polls, but to preserve orderly conduct.

The law provides that one-third the total number of eligible voters must exercise the right of suffrage in order to make the election valid. Failing this, congress is expected to declare the election void. Thereupon General Huerta will continue president ad interim until conditions permit of a new election.

There was absolutely no excitement in the capital, and only a mild interest in the event was noticeable. A very light vote was expected throughout the republic.

Huerta's Game Now Revealed.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Increasing certainty on the part of government officials that, in spite of his formal renunciation of ambition to succeed himself, Huerta would be elected president of Mexico in the general election was much in evidence in Washington. This view coincides with that voiced by political leaders in the City of Mexico.

This possibility of the situation has been discussed here for several weeks. It received apparent confirmation in the reports received here that General Huerta had sent instructions to federal officers throughout the republic that he was to be elected president and General Blanquet was to be elected vice president.

Neighboring Amities.

"No, we never stay at home Sunday. It's too disagreeable."

"Disagreeable?"

"Yes. Our next door neighbor goes away and leaves his dog locked up in the house and the poor brute barks and whines all day."

"It gets on your nerves, eh?"

"No, it isn't that. But the neighbors expect us to interfere."

"Well, why don't you? Tell your neighbor frankly about his howling dog."

COAL PRODUCTION

Clearfield Seventh on the List in This State.

Clearfield stands seventh in the production of coal among the counties of the state, a recent coal report says. In 1911 the mines in Clearfield county produced 7,852,628 tons of coal, and in 1912 the amount was 7,938,337 tons.

Last year Cambria county produced 17,000,000 tons, Indiana county 9,000,000 tons, Jefferson county 5,000,000 tons, Clinton county 345,000 tons and Center county 1,200,000 tons. The total production in the state was 161,865,488 tons.

BROUGHT S.C.H.C. SCALP BACK TO CLEARFIELD

Local Football Team Wins a
Notable Victory

In the hardest fought game of the year on a muddy field, C. H. S. fought its way to victory over State College High school on Saturday. The boys considered this game as the big game and jumped in with a vigor and fighting spirit that carried them on to victory against one of the best High school teams of the state.

Straight football was the order of the day on both sides. With the wet ball successful forward passing was almost an impossibility. One of State's attempts was caught by Fulford, who gave a brilliant example of open field work. Dodging several tacklers he succeeded in advancing the ball fifty yards.

However, the local team failed to follow up the advantage. For three quarters neither side was able to reach the coveted goal. In the beginning of the fourth quarter Clark Mitchell shot through tackle and with the skill and speed of a Mt. Pleasant or a Thorpe threw Shorty Miller in to the back ground among the lesser lights and scored the only touchdown of the game.

Only once was State dangerous in the first quarter the heavier State team carried the ball within striking distance of the local's goal, and then, met with the stubborn resistance there, forced them to try for a goal. It would be hard to say who started for Clearfield. The whole team fought with such fierceness and determination that one or two men cannot be given the credit. The tackling on both sides was of the best. Every tackle was hard and low. An example of breaking interference was given that would have delighted the heart of any college coach. One of the most brilliant examples of how the center position should be played was given by Fiegel, whose fierce tackling was the main feature of the local's defense.

RALLY DAY EXERCISES WERE HELD SUNDAY

Affairs in Two Churches Were Interesting

The rally day services at the Eleventh street M. E. church Sunday were very successful as well as most enjoyable. The Sunday school rally was held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and there was a large attendance of children and older people. The chapel was filled with an audience which greatly appreciated the exercises. The address of H. A. Reed, president of the Clearfield Sunday school association, was listened to with attention.

The general class meeting in the morning at 9:45 was a pleasant affair, and the Brotherhood heartily enjoyed the occasion. In the evening a fine program was rendered by the Epworth League, followed by special music by the choir and a most able sermon by the pastor.

At First Presbyterian.
At the rally day exercises at the First Presbyterian church Sunday more than 700 children were present, a number of new members of the school being in attendance.

The exercises were unusually interesting, a number of addresses being made and some fine music being discoursed.

MRS. EATON TAKES WITNESS STAND

Testimony Severe Attack on Admiral's Character.

INSULTED HER DAUGHTER.

Widow Accused of Poisoning Her Husband Testifies He Was Addicted to Drug and Drink and Made Her Life Miserable—Hints He Killed Adopted Baby.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton took the witness stand in her own behalf in her trial for the poisoning of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, U. S. N., retired. Her testimony was a severe attack upon the character of her second husband, whom she charged with drunkenness and of attempted undue familiarity with her daughter, June Ainsworth.

Mrs. Eaton had not completed her direct testimony when court adjourned. She will continue her testimony Monday morning. Throughout the great ordeal of the day, having been on the stand seven hours, she was cool and calm in the dramatic telling of the story of her life and the death of Admiral Eaton.

Mrs. Eaton said she was thirty-nine years old and was born in Alexandria, Va. She attended school until she was sixteen. She was later a telegraph operator in the United States land office. She married in 1894 Henry Ainsworth, chief clerk in the interstate commerce commission. Her husband lost his position, she said, because he drank excessively. She got him a position in Guthrie, Okla. She went there with Dorothy, their second child.

Becomes Nurse For Eaton.

Her husband's drinking caused her to sell her home and send her children, Dorothy and June, to Frederick, Md., to a sisters' home.

She obtained a position at Columbia Heights, Washington. She later met Eaton in Washington in a most pitiful condition—under the influence of liquor. She had to hold him up, he was so intoxicated. However, she went to Boston with him at his request. They took a trip to Canada, visiting Montreal and Niagara Falls.

She had already taken steps to get a divorce from Mr. Ainsworth about a year and a half before she met Eaton.

The accused woman created a most favorable impression by her testimony. Not once did she become excited. She appeared very sad as she told of the death of the adopted baby, Joseph G. Eaton, Jr., in 1909.

She said:

"We had been in bathing. The admiral came out of the water first and went to the house. Just as I was following at the cottage door I met the admiral coming out buttoning his collar. He had that black and stupefied look in his face. I heard the baby crying. I saw that his clothing had been disarranged and I picked him up. As I did so he vomited. We hastily summoned a doctor."

"The baby died that night. I was afraid the admiral had done something to the baby and told the doctor so. The admiral was under the influence of some kind of drug."

Love Letters Are Read.

Mr. Morse offered letters in evidence that Mrs. Eaton received in Weymouth from the retired naval officer. These were read.

When the admiral's love letters to her were read Mrs. Eaton leaned forward in the witness chair, seemingly eager to hear every word. Some of these letters sent her hugs and kisses without number, some were signed, "Your loving, darling husband."

WILSON AIDS A WIDOW.

Gives Her Federal Position in Recognition of Husband's Services.

Washington, Oct. 27.—In recognition of the service rendered to the government by her husband, President Wilson let down the civil service bars for Mrs. Mary Geddings, widow of Surgeon Henry D. Geddings, late of the public health service.

"Dr. Geddings was a commissioned officer in the public health service for about twenty-five years," said the president in his announcement, "and rendered distinguished service in matters relating to sanitation and public health. He also rendered valuable service in several epidemics of yellow fever at a time when few medical men were immune to that disease, and its cause was but little known."

The position sought by Mrs. Geddings was not announced.

J. P. Morgan on Trinity Board.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 27.—J. P. Morgan was elected in place of his father on the Trinity College corporation.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS

Get Plenty of Game in Huntington County.

The party of Clearfield hunters who were in Huntington county under the chaperonage of that skilled hunter Prothonotary Moore, returned on Saturday with a lot of game and other things. The party shot squirrels and pheasants to the full limit and brought home with them enough hickory nuts, chestnuts, walnuts and apples to keep them refreshed all winter.

There were no accidents during the trip, but the natives of Huntington put up a kick because of the expert manner in which Prothonotary Moore depleted the supply of game in that county.

WILSON DENOUNCES RULE BY THE SWORD

Hemisphere Should Be Devoted
to Government, He Says.

Swarthmore, Pa., Oct. 27.—President Wilson in a speech here proclaimed the doctrine that the whole western hemisphere should be devoted to one sacred purpose: "That nowhere can any government endure which is sustained by blood or supported by anything but the consent of the governed."

It was while extolling the spirit with which William Penn sought to establish "a free commonwealth" in America that the president incidentally revealed his thoughts on present day problems. His utterances, it is known, reflect the ideas which the Washington administration is preparing to announce to the world in a formal note on the policy of the United States toward Mexico.

The president spoke in a big tent not far from the spot where Penn landed, the exercises also being commemorative of Founders' day at Swarthmore college.

"I would not be interested," said the president, "in celebrating the memory of William Penn if his conquest had been merely a material one. Sometimes we have been laughed at by foreigners in particular for boasting of the size of the American continent, the size of our own domain as a nation, for they have naturally suggested that we did not make it. But I claim that every race and every man is as big as the thing that he takes possession of and that the size of America is in some sense a standard of the size and capacity of the American people."

Your Vote Solicited.

Having been nominated for the office of Tax Collector of Clearfield Borough, I solicit the votes of all citizens. If elected I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and promise that every one will receive fair and impartial treatment.

CAPTAIN CLARK HOST TO MANY CHILDREN

Entertains Them With Matinee
at Opera House

Thomas E. Clark on Saturday delighted the children of Clearfield by admitting them free of charge to a vaudeville and moving picture matinee in the New opera house, of which he is manager. The event was in commemoration of the captain's 72nd birthday anniversary, and the occasion was one that will be long remembered by the children who were present.

There were 1150 children in the opera house when the performance began, and to say that they appreciated and enjoyed the shows needs no affidavit from this paper. The season tickets to vaudeville shows and moving pictures until April 1, 1914 were won by Master Robert Kennedy and Miss Mary Madeline Hughes. The number of beans in the jar was 2319. Robert guessed 2318 and Mary 2307.

Captain Clark made a brief speech to the children, telling them to be good boys and girls. He stated that Christmas day he would give them another free show and a treat of candy.

COMING EVENTS.

General Election, Nov. 4.

Deer Hunting season opens Nov. 10 closes Nov. 25.

Good evening! Take an umbrella with you; but be sure that it's your own.

CAMPAIGN CLOSING.

Another week will see the close of the present campaign. Tuesday of next week the citizens of Clearfield county will vote for the candidates who were nominated at the primaries.
The candidates and their friends have made a vigorous campaign, and it has been a strenuous battle for the candidates for judge. No one knows what the result of the voting for judge will be, despite the claims of the friends of the nominees. There are likely to be some surprises when the polls close on November 4.

One candidate for judge there is who can say that he has conducted a clean, fair and honorable campaign.
That candidate is Oscar Mitchell. No person has been able to find the least trace of crookedness in the work done by Mr. Mitchell and his friends. Not one word derogatory to the character of Mr. Mitchell has been uttered in this campaign. Mr. Mitchell is a citizen of integrity, a man who would scorn to do anything which might savor of crookedness.

He will end the campaign with the knowledge that neither he nor his friends have violated any law, sought to influence voters by illegal methods or performed any act which might be construed as criminal.

Mr. Mitchell deserves election because he is able, honorable, dignified and conscientious. He deserves election because he stands on a platform which every reputable citizen can endorse. He deserves election because he is opposed to the destruction of Clearfield county politics by the liquor element. He is the only candidate for judge in this county who stands fairly and squarely upon the temperance platform and who, if elected, will enforce the liquor laws in accordance with the wishes and prayers of a majority of the people of the county.

The election of judge this year will test the sincerity of the people who deplore the fact that the liquor interests seek to control the courts.
The result of the election will prove whether or not the people of Clearfield county desire to place upon the bench a judge who will curb the harmful influence of the liquor interests and who will see that the liquor laws are rigidly enforced.
The Progress believes that the good people of Clearfield county will elect Mr. Mitchell and insure ten years of immunity from the sale and barter of liquor licenses by unscrupulous men.

CRUEL PUNISHMENT.

Under the new regulations of the army officers must once a year ride horseback for a distance of ninety miles. Most of the officers who are stationed at Washington and other eastern points have grown fat sitting in upholstered chairs in their offices, and the only exercise they took was in dancing attendance upon haughty dames at pink teas. For years they have never rode anything more substantial than a hobby horse. These colonels and majors complain of the cruel punishment that is inflicted upon them in the enforcement of the regulations requiring them to ride at least ninety miles every year.

We cannot help sympathizing with those officers who, after years of loafing in parlor chairs, must now make an equestrian tour of ninety miles. The spectacle of army officers who imagine that they would be permitted to spend their time in the smoking room, in the parlor or some other nice and comfortable place cantering around the country on the back of fractious horses will be one that will draw tears from society ladies, but will be heartily enjoyed by those American citizens who believe that an officer should be something more than a loafer.

BUYING AN OFFICE.

There is an oath which all candidates for public office who are elected subscribe and swear to. This oath relates—

"That I have not paid or contributed to be paid, or promise to pay, or contribute, or contributed to, or promised to contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or valuable thing to procure my nomination or election, except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law."

There is some foundation for the charge that certain candidates for office in Clearfield county, through their agents, have "paid or contributed" money or other valuable thing for the purpose of influencing voters to support at the polls these certain candidates. Could these candidates, if elected, swear that they did not contribute money or other valuable thing for the purpose of securing their election without perjuring themselves?

A candidate cannot avoid responsibility for the acts of his agents. If the agents spend money to buy votes the candidate cannot truthfully say that he was not cognizant of the fact.
The fact of the matter is that candidates are fully aware of the acts of their agents, and when those agents spend money in a campaign it is useless for the candidate to plead that he is ignorant of the fact. It is the duty of a candidate to know what his agents are doing, and if he does know and neglects or refuses to prevent the corruption of voters he is unfit, if elected, to occupy office.

The man who hitches his horse to a freight car on a railroad and stands agape when the car and horse disappear around the curve is closely related to the man who sits on the end of a limb while he saws it from a tree.

About two hundred and thirty thousand hunters will take out licenses this year. There aren't two hundred and thirty thousand pieces of game in the state, so about two hundred thousand hunters will go home empty handed at the end of the season.

LAMP SHADE EFFECT.

The Salient Costume
Point is the Flare.

SUITS OF BLUE CLOTH AND SATIN.

Costume, suit and wrap fashions for the fall season are characterized not so much by novelty of form as by novelty and beauty of materials and colorings. The oriental form is still maintained, but the eastern influence is less evident considerably and is already on the decline from a novelty standpoint.
Women of good taste are demanding liberation from too uniform a dress, and there will be more individuality than heretofore from the Paris dress makers. Each big maker will stand for what is his conception of the proper dress for the fashionable woman of 1913-14. Despite this variety, however, there is an accordance. Thus, while some makers show long coats and others short jackets, the two seemingly opposed forms are brought into harmony through the fact that in the long coats there is nearly always a break at the waist line, brought about by a girdle, the cut of the waist, etc.
One of the new ideas is the hip flare or lamp shade effect. The charm of this costume is the lamp shade effect in the coat and on the skirt. The model is developed in blue cloth and satin, and the collar and cuffs are of silk.

The Accommodating Salt.

There isn't a better friend in the household than common salt, and one can't begin to remember the half of the things it will gladly do for us if but given the opportunity.

Salt sprinkled over a carpet after it is swept will brighten the colors and kill germs.

A pinch of salt in the water will help to keep out flowers fresh.

To clean a white knit sweater or shawl put it into a flour bag containing equal parts of flour and salt and shake well. No washing will be required after this process.

For cleaning enamel bathtubs, etc.,
rub with a cloth saturated with hore-sene, upon which has been spread a layer of salt. Afterward rinse tub down with warm, soapy water.

Before washing soiled handkerchiefs allow them to soak in cold water into which has been put a handful or so of salt. This makes them much easier to wash.

Before washing new goods let stand in salt and water to set the color.

For killing plantain leaves or weeds keep wetting with a strong solution of salt and water. Rock salt or table salt may be used. If preferred, the salt may be sprinkled on the weeds and then wet with a hose. Rock salt is the better of the two for the latter method.

Salt in the bottom of the shoes in winter will help the circulation and prevent the feet from getting cold.
This precaution is quite common and effective among Maine woodsmen.

A quarter of a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of water taken a half hour before breakfast is a good laxative and generally beneficial.

The hands of fainting persons are often rubbed with salt to help the circulation.

But of the uses of salt there seems no end.

Lace Underskirts.

There are ever so many dresses for young girls with straight or slightly draped tunics opening over underskirts composed of three or four ruffles of soft lace. These ruffles are sometimes made of fine net edged with a thread in some bright color which is repeated in the sash, or used as a narrow velvet piping for the neck and sleeves.
This edging of a couple of strands of colored silk or thread forms a very pretty finish for net ruffling.

Explained.

There is on the south side of Chicago an amusement park named, from the French words "free from care," Sans Souci park.

Two young men passed this park on a street car recently. One of them evidently was a stranger in the city and his friend was showing him about.
Said the stranger: "What does Sans Souci mean?"

His friend readily replied, "It's from the Spanish and means 'I should worry.'—Everybody's.

IT'S NOT TOO SOON

TO THINK OF HEATING STOVES

In fact October's chilly mornings and evenings compel us to do so—and how cheerless rooms without heat, then too from a health viewpoint.
For the want of a little heat now, ill may be contracted that may cause suffering all winter. As a preventative we would prescribe

One of our OIL HEATERS at $2.50 to $5.00
Or one of our SINGLE or DOUBLE HEAT-ING STOVES at $10.00 to $35.00.

STARVING BOY IS FOUND IN BOXCAR

Saved by Luck After Five Days
In Unique Prison.

New York, Oct. 27. — Nearly dead from starvation, his hands raw and bleeding from frenzied pounding on the walls of his novel prison, Leon Cash, a seventeen-year-old boy living in West Paris, Me., was taken from a freight car in the Oak Point yards of the New Haven railroad. He had been confined for five days without food or water and had traveled in the car from New London, Conn.

Edward Kemp, a railroad detective, heard moans coming from the car. With members of the train crew he forced the locked door. Cash was lying just inside, his face glued to the crack and his strength almost gone. His clothes were torn, his face and hands scratched and bleeding, and he bore other evidences of the terrific struggle he had made to release himself before his strength failed.

He is the son of a farmer and worked on the farm until last July, when he ran away to work with a traveling circus. When the show played Glen Cove, N. Y., he left it to work in a store and saved his money. Two weeks ago, having saved $4, he decided to "see New York."

For five days he tramped the streets, looking for work, but his appearance was against him. His money dwindled, and when it was gone he decided to walk home. He began trudging up the New Haven tracks, past New London. He was weary and footsore, and an open freight car looked up so inviting that he couldn't resist the temptation to crawl in and go to sleep. His memory as to time is vague from that time until he was lifted out of the car in the Bronx.

The boy will recover, it was said at the hospital, and go home--this time in a cushioned car seat.

SAYS RYAN'S $10,000 WENT TO MR. MURPHY

Sulzer Makes Charges Against Tammany Chief.

New York, Oct. 27. — True to his promise, William Sulzer began to "tear things open" with reference to Charles F. Murphy.

He made seven speeches on the east side and was given a demonstration that made the triumph of his return from Albany seem feeble beside it. And the main speech, instead of being vague and general in its charges, got down to bed rock.

He told what he called the "whole story" regarding Allan Ryan and the Ryan contribution of $10,000. He says this sum went directly to Murphy by the hand of Murphy's man, John H. Delaney.

He accused Murphy of having received this money and of failing to account for it, just as he says Murphy did with the $25,000 contributed by Beardsley in behalf of the late Anthony N. Brady.

He declared that Murphy had given outright to "his closest personal friend" $5,000 of the money he, Sulzer, had sent to the Tammany chief.

And he finally asserted that the Ryan interview with him, which figured importantly in the impeachment trial, had been brought about by Ryan's personal request. Sulzer states that Ryan called him on the phone from Suffern at the executive mansion, using the name of Morgan as an alias, and beseeched him to arrange a meeting in New York.

JUDGE GARY THREATENED.

Annoyed by Mysterious Telephone Calls in Chicago, It Is Said.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Threatening telephone calls and messages to the hotel apartments here of Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, caused Judge Gary, it is reported, to call in the assistance of private detectives and to isolate his rooms from outside communication.

Judge and Mrs. Gary have been stopping here during the sessions of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Mrs. Gary denied having received any written communications, according to the report, but the telephone bell in the Gary apartments is said to have rung almost constantly after their arrival until Mr. Gary ordered it cut off and no communication allowed with his rooms unless the person calling fully identified himself.

Rat Liked Carnations.
Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 27. — "The vegetable rat" of Governor Johnson's office is dead. The rodent that for weeks has crept into the office of Governor Johnson to nibble a carnation bouquet on the governor's table, passing a trap baited with cheese, was found in a trap on the governor's table, which was baited with the rat's favorite flower.

Woman, 103, Will Vote.

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 27. — Grandma Sarah Todd, sister-in-law of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, aged 103, has registered as a voter. Mrs. Todd, whose husband was the war president's brother-in-law, is as sprightly as a woman thirty years younger. "Why shouldn't I vote?" she asked. "I am old enough."

J. SERGEANT GRAM.

Attacked by Hennessy,
He Denies He Acted as Messenger For Murphy.

© 1913, by American Press Association.

John A. Hennessy, the Sulzer supporter, who hotly attacked Tammany Hall in the New York mayoralty campaign, made charges against J. Sergeant Gram of the public service commission, which were promptly denied. Mr. Gram said: "I never was Murphy's messenger to Sulzer. I did collect some campaign contributions in 1910 for the Dix ticket. They were turned over to the Tammany campaign committee. The Hennessy charge that I took messages to Sulzer at Albany is foolish, as I had no communication with the man while he was governor."

GIVES UP HER SON'S LOOT.

Mother, Old and Ill, Would Not Keep Money He Stole For Her.

Boston, Oct. 27. — A white haired woman, weak and trembling, entered police headquarters and dropped on the sergeant's desk a crumpled roll of bills. In a faltering voice she said it was money her son had stolen from a downtown store.

Her boy, she declared, had committed the robbery to provide comforts for her while she lay ill in her home. Suspecting that he could not have obtained $66, the amount he gave her, by any honest means, she had drawn the story of his crime from him, told him to hide and had risen from her sickbed to make restitution.

The sergeant upon hearing her story realized that her son was one of two men who entered a store and at the point of a revolver forced the manager to open the safe and hand over $66. While one of the men took the money the other threw a clerk to the floor and held him there. Then the robbers ran out of the building and disappeared.

DOG NABS ALLEGED BURGLAR

Then His Young Mistress Calls Police.
Loot Totals $280,000.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—A bulldog and a pretty girl captured an alleged burglar here. The prisoner is William Bastain, who for five years has lived with his young sister, Josephine, in a richly furnished house on the proceeds, the police say, of robberies that have netted him $280,000. Bank books showing balances aggregating $10,000 were found at his residence, where his sister was arrested.

Bastain was crossing a back yard after, it is said, having robbed a house by house. Prance, a pet bulldog, nabbed the man and held on until his mistress, Miss Jennie Debrunner, summoned the police.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

David M. Mortland, former mayor of Rockland, Me., and for many years a member of the state railroad commission died in Rockland, aged seventy-eight.

Captain Harry McElherry of the Thirteenth company, Philippine Scouts, died at Manila from wounds received recently during a fight between the Scouts and the Moros at Talipao.

Mrs. Tertin C. Little, wife of Dr. Charles S. Little, superintendent of Letchworth Village at Thiells, N. Y., a state institution for the feeble minded, died at the Woman's hospital in New York.

Charles S. Millington, assistant United States treasurer in New York, died at his home in Harkness, N. Y. Mr. Millington was president of the Harkness National bank. He served one term in congress.

The death of Mr. Montaguini, reported to the pope from Berlin, has caused great grief at the Vatican. He had been suffering recently from an affection of the throat and was operated on a few days ago.

A. Blair Kellogg, former member of the Board of National bank of Belvidere, N. J., died suddenly at the State hospital at Gravesend Park. He was sixty-six years old and had been at the hospital since Oct. 8.

Leonard Briggs, for seventeen years chief of the Rome (N. Y.) fire department, is dead at his home in Rome, aged fifty-three years. He was a member of the International and New York State Fire Chiefs' associations.

Her Angel Child.

Mother's darling, aged four, was not to be like other boys and learn to use naughty and slangy words. He was not allowed to play with the older boys in the neighborhood for fear his sensitive nature might be shocked at the language they used. One day while mother was busy he slipped over into the next street and played for half an hour with a crowd of older boys. In that half hour he took a complete course in modern language.

On his return mother said:

"Where has my precious been?"

"You should worry and get a wrinkle," he cheerfully replied.

"Dearest, tell mother where you learned such horrible language!" mother exclaimed.

"Aw, good night, shirt," came sweetly from the cupid bow mouth.

Then mother commenced to weep, for she realized that her angel child was just a boy after all.—Kansas City Star.

GERARD RENTS A PALACE.

American Ambassador Will Be Fairly Well Housed in Berlin.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The new American ambassador to Germany, James W. Gerard, rented for the embassy premises a house in Wilhelm platz, known as the Von Schwabach palace, formerly owned by a banker of that name. The yearly rental is $15,000. Instead of the $22,500 at first demanded.

The new embassy is finely situated within a very short distance of the imperial chancellery's palace and the German foreign office.

It is well adapted for entertaining, but lacks modern conveniences and therefore extensive internal alterations will be necessary before the ambassador goes into residence at Christmas.

Women's Organs Reversed.

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—The heart of Mrs. Edna Bowman, a patient at the General hospital, is on her right side. Not only is her heart on the right side, but other organs are reversed in position. Physicians said she would never suffer ill effects from the transposition.

20 HURT IN WRECK ON NEW HAVEN

8th Edgo Express Jumps Track
near Westerly, R. I.

MANY HAD NARROW ESCAPES

Train Thrown Down Embankment,
Blocking Both East and West Bound
Tracks—Two Coaches Turned Completely Over—Physicians Hurried to
Scene to Care for the Injured.

Westerly, R. I., Oct. 27.—Train No. 26, the fast Gilt Edge express of the New York, New Haven and Hartford lines, jumped the tracks about a mile east of this town at what is known as White Dog curve.

About twenty passengers were seriously injured, but none killed. The early reports stated that several persons were killed, but this was not confirmed.

The train was thrown down an embankment. Telephone messages were sent to Providence, R. I., and New London, Conn., for relief trains, and a score of physicians were hurried on to Westerly. New London is sixteen miles from the scene of the wreck.

A wrecking train was sent on from Providence carrying, besides the crew six physicians from the Rhode Island hospital and seven physicians were caught at their homes.

The entire train was derailed, blocking both the east and westbound tracks. The number of injured is not yet known.

Two of the coaches turned completely over when the train was derailed and went tumbling down the embankment.

Boston, Oct. 27.—It was said at the offices of the New Haven railroad in this city that no one was killed in the wreck at Westerly, according to their information, but that many persons were hurt.

EVANGELIST HAMILTON TALKS OF "SHAMS"

Sunday's Service at Tabernacle
Best Yet

The forces of righteousness made a decided advance at the Glen Richey tabernacle on Sunday. The day opened with a fair audience, in spite of rain and mud. Evangelist Hamilton completely captured his audience while he discoursed on the theme, "They again took up stones to stone him."

At 3:00 o'clock, the hour set for the men's meeting, his large, attentive audience that well filled the spacious tabernacle, came from every town and hamlet within a distance of ten miles.

In discussing the subject, "Shams," Mr. Hamilton vividly pictured the things that do not make up a man. He hit the swearing habit, the card-playing and gambling habit, a double social standard for men and women, and the booze evil, striking each in turn a telling blow. His method of handling the liquor question is entirely his own, and his climax brought forth round after round of applause.

Never before did the men of this community listen to so merciless and forceful a denunciation of this unprincipled, un-American and unchristian business. Scores of men, at the close of the sermon, walked to the front and warmly complimented the speaker on his able address.

In the evening the largest crowd that has yet attended the meetings filled the tabernacle. At the close of another of Mr. Hamilton's masterly sermons, a number of persons accepted the invitation to begin the Christian life.

During the day all of the expense accounts, amounting to $1,500, were raised, except $40, and the evening offerings will be discontinued.

Saturday night's and Sunday's services witnessed the turning point in this campaign, and from this on the revival fire promises to burn at white heat.

There will be no services this evening, but services as usual on Tuesday night, and each night during the week. On Tuesday evening he will speak to secret societies and on Saturday evening he will discuss the dance evil.

STRIKE AT ROSSITER

Grievances Not Satisfactorily Adjusted, Men Say.

Eight hundred miners walked out of the Rossiter mines of the Clearfield Bituminous Coal company last week. The men claim that the trouble is the result of a failure of the company to pay for the removal of bony from the coal. Shortage of work for the miners, necessitating the suspension of the labors of car loaders.

Public Meeting in the Court
House Tomorrow Night

Tuesday evening of this week one of the most important meetings in this judicial campaign will be held in the arbitration room in the court house. This meeting will be under the auspices of the friends and supporters of Oscar Mitchell, the temperance candidate for judge.

There will be two speakers, both of whom are eloquent, earnest and convincing talkers. Rev. J. H. Keller of Johnstown, will address the people at 7:30. Rev. Mr. Keller is a good talker and those who have heard him discuss the temperance question in other places have been highly pleased with his argument.

DR. HOMER W. TOPE.

Dr. Homer W. Tope, of Philadelphia, will address the audience at 8 o'clock. Dr. Tope is one of the best known temperance workers in Eastern Pennsylvania, and his talk tomorrow evening will prove edifying to the public.

It is desired that every citizen who believes in the temperance movement will be present at this meeting, as the message these men will deliver will prove encouraging to the friends of the cause. Everybody invited, regardless of their political faith.

Farewell Banquet in Honor of Raymond L. Winslow.

The banquet held at the Dimeling Saturday night, in honor of Raymond L. Winslow, who, with his wife will take up their residence in New York city, was a most delightful affair. About thirty of the friends of Mr. Winslow participated in the event and the evening was spent in listening to farewell speeches and the discussion of one of George Sheldon's famous menus.

The words of farewell uttered by the guests were genuine and proved that Mr. Winslow's departure from the town is deeply regretted.

Hallowe'en Social.

The Willing Workers' class of the U. B. Sunday school at Woodland will hold a Hallowe'en Social in Swift's Hall Oct. 31. After an entertainment of recitations, dialogues and music a free lunch will be served. Admission: Adults, 20c.; Children 15c. Everybody cordially invited.

HUERTA PLEDGES RIVALS TO PEACE

All Agree to Back Winner of
the Election.

LITTLE INTEREST SHOWN.

No Choice of a President Was Expected—Administration Awaits of the Plans—Law Provides One-Third of Total Number of Eligible Voters Must Participate Before Election Is Legal.

City of Mexico, Oct. 27.—Just prior to the holding of the general election all the candidates present in the capital gathered at the National palace at the call of President Huerta to discuss questions relating to the future conduct of the candidates. As a result of the deliberations General Huerta announced his intention to issue a formal proclamation embodying the agreements reached.

These agreements, in general terms, were that the candidates would abide by the result of the voting. Should any candidate be shown to have polled enough votes to constitute his election the others are to assist him in pacifying the country and placing it on a sound financial and industrial basis.

On the other hand, should there not be enough votes cast to fulfill the requirements of the law and the elections for that reason be declared of no effect, all those concerned are to aid General Huerta in every way possible to accomplish the same ends pending the calling and holding of new elections at a future date.

Candidates Were Unanimous.

The conference was attended by Federico Gamboa, presidential candidate of the Catholic party, David de la Fuente, the Liberal Republican candidate, and Manuel Calero, candidate of the Liberal party; Jose Maria Requena, vice presidential candidate on the ticket with General Felix Diaz, General Eugenio Rascon, Dr. Gregorio Mendizabal and Jesus Flores Magon, the other vice presidential candidates. The conference is said to have been very harmonious, all of the candidates pledging themselves to the agreement.

All the preparations have been completed for the election of a president and a vice president, deputies and senators. The registration lists have been distributed to the committees who will preside over the polling places. The police who have been assigned to the various districts have been instructed to maintain a strictly neutral attitude. In addition, about 4,000 troops in barracks will be ready to suppress any attempt at disorder.

Neither the government officials nor the candidates look for any trouble. All the candidates have publicly exhorted their followers to do their duty at the polls, but to preserve orderly conduct.

The law provides that one-third the total number of eligible voters must exercise the right of suffrage in order to make the election valid. Failing this, congress is expected to declare the election void. Thereupon General Huerta will continue president ad interim until conditions permit of a new election.

There was absolutely no excitement in the capital, and only a mild interest in the event was noticeable. A very light vote was expected throughout the republic.

Huerta's Game Now Revealed.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Increasing certainty on the part of government officials that, in spite of his formal renunciation of ambition to succeed himself, Huerta would be elected president of Mexico in the general election was much in evidence in Washington. This view coincides with that voiced by political leaders in the City of Mexico.

This possibility of the situation has been discussed here for several weeks. It received apparent confirmation in the reports received here that General Huerta had sent instructions to federal officers throughout the republic that he was to be elected president and General Blanquet was to be elected vice president.

Neighboring Amities.

"No, we never stay at home Sunday. It's too disagreeable."

"Disagreeable?"

"Yes. Our next door neighbor goes away and leaves his dog locked up in the house and the poor brute barks and whines all day."

"It gets on your nerves, eh?"

"No, it isn't that. But the neighbors expect us to interfere."

"Well, why don't you? Tell your neighbor frankly about his howling dog."

"How can I when we've just got a new phonograph and my eldest daughter is learning to sing?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Great Cutup.

"What a cutup that fellow is! 'Quite so. He is a medical student.'"

COAL PRODUCTION

Clearfield Seventh on the List in This State.

Clearfield stands seventh in the production of coal among the counties of the state, a recent coal report says. In 1911 the mines in Clearfield county produced 7,852,628 tons of coal, and in 1912 the amount was 7,938,337 tons.

Last year Cambria county produced 17,000,000 tons, Indiana county 9,000,000 tons, Jefferson county 5,000,000 tons, Clinton county 345,000 tons and Center county 1,200,000 tons. The total production in the state was 161,865,488 tons.

BROUGHT S.C.H.C. SCALP BACK TO CLEARFIELD

Local Football Team Wins a
Notable Victory

In the hardest fought game of the year on a muddy field, C. H. S. fought its way to victory over State College High school on Saturday. The boys considered this game as the big game and jumped in with a vigor and fighting spirit that carried them on to victory against one of the best High school teams of the state.

Straight football was the order of the day on both sides. With the wet ball successful forward passing was almost an impossibility. One of State's attempts was caught by Fulford, who gave a brilliant example of open field work. Dodging several tacklers he succeeded in advancing the ball fifty yards.

However, the local team failed to follow up the advantage. For three quarters neither side was able to reach the coveted goal. In the beginning of the fourth quarter Clark Mitchell shot through tackle and with the skill and speed of a Mt. Pleasant or a Thorpe threw Shorty Miller in to the back ground among the lesser lights and scored the only touchdown of the game.

Only once was State dangerous in the first quarter the heavier State team carried the ball within striking distance of the local's goal, and then, met with the stubborn resistance there, forced them to try for a goal. It would be hard to say who started for Clearfield. The whole team fought with such fierceness and determination that one or two men cannot be given the credit. The tackling on both sides was of the best. Every tackle was hard and low. An example of breaking interference was given that would have delighted the heart of any college coach. One of the most brilliant examples of how the center position should be played was given by Fiegel, whose fierce tackling was the main feature of the local's defense.

RALLY DAY EXERCISES WERE HELD SUNDAY

Affairs in Two Churches Were
Interesting

The rally day services at the Eleventh street M. E. church Sunday were very successful as well as most enjoyable. The Sunday school rally was held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and there was a large attendance of children and older people. The chapel was filled with an audience which greatly appreciated the exercises. The address of H. A. Reed, president of the Clearfield Sunday school association, was listened to with attention.

The general class meeting in the morning at 9:45 was a pleasant affair, and the Brotherhood heartily enjoyed the occasion. In the evening a fine program was rendered by the Epworth League, followed by special music by the choir and a most able sermon by the pastor.

At First Presbyterian.
At the rally day exercises at the First Presbyterian church Sunday more than 700 children were present, a number of new members of the school being in attendance.

The exercises were unusually interesting, a number of addresses being made and some fine music being discoursed.

MRS. EATON TAKES WITNESS STAND

Testimony Severe Attack on Admiral's Character.

INSULTED HER DAUGHTER.

Widow Accused of Poisoning Her Husband Testifies He Was Addicted to Drug and Drink and Made Her Life Miserable—Hints He Killed Adopted Baby.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton took the witness stand in her own behalf in her trial for the poisoning of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, U. S. N., retired. Her testimony was a severe attack upon the character of her second husband, whom she charged with drunkenness and of attempted undue familiarity with her daughter, June Ainsworth.

Mrs. Eaton had not completed her direct testimony when court adjourned. She will continue her testimony Monday morning. Throughout the great ordeal of the day, having been on the stand seven hours, she was cool and calm in the dramatic telling of the story of her life and the death of Admiral Eaton.

Mrs. Eaton said she was thirty-nine years old and was born in Alexandria, Va. She attended school until she was sixteen. She was later a telegraph operator in the United States land office. She married in 1894 Henry Ainsworth, chief clerk in the interstate commerce commission. Her husband lost his position, she said, because he drank excessively. She got him a position in Guthrie, Okla. She went there with Dorothy, their second child.

Becomes Nurse For Eaton.
Her husband's drinking caused her to sell her home and send her children, Dorothy and June, to Frederick, Md., to a sisters' home.

She obtained a position at Columbia Heights, Washington. She later met Eaton in Washington in a most pitiful condition—under the influence of liquor. She had to hold him up, he was so intoxicated. However, she went to Boston with him at his request. They took a trip to Canada, visiting Montreal and Niagara Falls.

She had already taken steps to get a divorce from Mr. Ainsworth about a year and a half before she met Eaton.

The accused woman created a most favorable impression by her testimony. Not once did she become excited. She appeared very sad as she told of the death of the adopted baby, Joseph G. Eaton, Jr., in 1909.

She said:
"We had been in bathing. The admiral came out of the water first and went to the house. Just as I was following at the cottage door I met the admiral coming out buttoning his collar. He had that black and stupefied look in his face. I heard the baby crying. I saw that his clothing had been disarranged and I picked him up. As I did so he vomited. We hastily summoned a doctor."

"The baby died that night. I was afraid the admiral had done something to the baby and told the doctor so. The admiral was under the influence of some kind of drug."

Love Letters Are Read.
Mr. Morse offered letters in evidence that Mrs. Eaton received in Weymouth from the retired naval officer. These were read.

When the admiral's love letters to her were read Mrs. Eaton leaned forward in the witness chair, seemingly eager to hear every word. Some of these letters sent her hugs and kisses without number, some were signed, "Your loving, darling husband."

WILSON AIDS A WIDOW.

Gives Her Federal Position in Recognition of Husband's Services.

Washington, Oct. 27.—In recognition of the service rendered to the government by her husband, President Wilson let down the civil service bars for Mrs. Mary Geddings, widow of Surgeon Henry D. Geddings, late of the public health service.

"Dr. Geddings was a commissioned officer in the public health service for about twenty-five years," said the president in his announcement, "and rendered distinguished service in matters relating to sanitation and public health. He also rendered valuable service in several epidemics of yellow fever at a time when few medical men were immune to that disease, and its cause was but little known."

The position sought by Mrs. Geddings was not announced.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 27.—J. P. Morgan was elected in place of his father on the Trinity College corporation.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS

Get Plenty of Game in Huntington County.

The party of Clearfield hunters who were in Huntington county under the chaperonage of that skilled hunter Prothonotary Moore, returned on Saturday with a lot of game and other things. The party shot squirrels and pheasants to the full limit and brought home with them enough hickory nuts, chestnuts, walnuts and apples to keep them refreshed all winter.

There were no accidents during the trip, but the natives of Huntington put up a kick because of the expert manner in which Prothonotary Moore depleted the supply of game in that county.

WILSON DENOUNCES RULE BY THE SWORD

Hemisphere Should Be Devoted
to Government, He Says.

Swarthmore, Pa., Oct. 27.—President Wilson in a speech here proclaimed the doctrine that the whole western hemisphere should be devoted to one sacred purpose: "That nowhere can any government endure which is sustained by blood or supported by anything but the consent of the governed."

It was while extolling the spirit with which William Penn sought to establish "a free commonwealth" in America that the president incidentally revealed his thoughts on present day problems. His utterances, it is known, reflect the ideas which the Washington administration is preparing to announce to the world in a formal note on the policy of the United States toward Mexico.

The president spoke in a big tent not far from the spot where Penn landed, the exercises also being commemorative of Founders' day at Swarthmore college.

"I would not be interested," said the president, "in celebrating the memory of William Penn if his conquest had been merely a material one. Sometimes we have been laughed at by foreigners in particular for boasting of the size of the American continent, the size of our own domain as a nation, for they have naturally suggested that we did not make it. But I claim that every race and every man is as big as the thing that he takes possession of and that the size of America is in some sense a standard of the size and capacity of the American people."

Your Vote Solicited.

Having been nominated for the office of Tax Collector of Clearfield Borough, I solicit the votes of all citizens. If elected I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and promise that every one will receive fair and impartial treatment.

CAPTAIN CLARK HOST TO MANY CHILDREN

Entertains Them With Matinee
at Opera House

Thomas E. Clark on Saturday delighted the children of Clearfield by admitting them free of charge to a vaudeville and moving picture matinee in the New opera house, of which he is manager. The event was in commemoration of the captain's 72nd birthday anniversary, and the occasion was one that will be long remembered by the children who were present.

There were 1150 children in the opera house when the performance began, and to say that they appreciated and enjoyed the shows needs no affidavit from this paper. The season tickets to vaudeville shows and moving pictures until April 1, 1914 were won by Master Robert Kennedy and Miss Mary Madeline Hughes. The number of beans in the jar was 2319. Robert guessed 2318 and Mary 2307.

Captain Clark made a brief speech to the children, telling them to be good boys and girls. He stated that Christmas day he would give them another free show and a treat of candy.

COMING EVENTS.

General Election, Nov. 4.

Good evening! Take an umbrella with you; but be sure that it's your own.

CAMPAIGN CLOSING.

Another week will see the close of the present campaign. Tuesday of next week the citizens of Clearfield county will vote for the candidates who were nominated at the primaries. The candidates and their friends have made a vigorous campaign, and it has been a strenuous battle for the candidates for judge. No one knows what the result of the voting for judge will be, despite the claims of the friends of the nominees. There are likely to be some surprises when the polls close on November 4.

One candidate for judge there is who can say that he has conducted a clean, fair and honorable campaign. That candidate is Oscar Mitchell. No person has been able to find the least trace of crookedness in the work done by Mr. Mitchell and his friends. Not one word derogatory to the character of Mr. Mitchell has been uttered in this campaign. Mr. Mitchell is a citizen of integrity, a man who would scorn to do anything which might savor of crookedness. He will end the campaign with the knowledge that neither he nor his friends have violated any law, sought to influence voters by illegal methods or performed any act which might be construed as criminal.

Mr. Mitchell deserves election because he is able, honorable, dignified and conscientious. He deserves election because he stands on a platform which every reputable citizen can endorse. He deserves election because he is opposed to the domination of Clearfield county politics by the liquor element. He is the only candidate for judge in this county who stands fairly and squarely upon the temperance platform and who, if elected, will enforce the liquor laws in accordance with the wishes and prayers of a majority of the people of the county.

The election of judge this year will test the sincerity of the people who deplore the fact that the liquor interests seek to control the courts. The result of the election will prove whether or not the people of Clearfield county desire to place upon the bench a judge who will curb the harmful influence of the liquor interests and who will see that the liquor laws are rigidly enforced. The Progress believes that the good people of Clearfield county will elect Mr. Mitchell and insure ten years of immunity from the sale and barter of liquor licenses by unscrupulous men.

CRUEL PUNISHMENT.

Under the new regulations of the army officers must once a year ride horseback for a distance of ninety miles. Most of the officers who are stationed at Washington and other eastern points have grown fat sitting in upholstered chairs in their offices, and the only exercise they took was in dancing attendance upon haughty dames at pink teas. For years they have never rode anything more substantial than a hobby horse. These colonels and majors complain of the cruel punishment that is inflicted upon them in the enforcement of the regulations requiring them to ride at least ninety miles every year.

We cannot help sympathizing with those officers who, after years of loafing in parlor chairs, must now make an equestrian tour of ninety miles. The spectacle of army officers who imagine that they would be permitted to spend their time in the smoking room, in the parlor or some other nice and comfortable place cantering around the country on the back of fractious horses will be one that will draw tears from society belles, but will be heartily enjoyed by those American citizens who believe that an officer should be something more than a loafer.

BUYING AN OFFICE.

There is an oath which all candidates for public office who are elected subscribe and swear to. This oath relates—

"That I have not paid or contributed to be paid, or promise to pay, or contribute, or contributed or promised to contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or valuable thing to procure my nomination or election, except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law."

There is some foundation for the charge that certain candidates for office in Clearfield county, through their agents, have "paid or contributed" money or other valuable thing for the purpose of influencing voters to support at the polls these certain candidates. Could these candidates, if elected, swear that they did not contribute money or other valuable thing for the purpose of securing their election without perjuring themselves?

A candidate cannot avoid responsibility for the acts of his agents. If the agents spend money to buy votes the candidate cannot truthfully say that he was not cognizant of the fact. The fact of the matter is that candidates are fully aware of the acts of their agents, and when those agents spend money in a campaign it is useless for the candidate to plead that he is ignorant of the fact. It is the duty of a candidate to know what his agents are doing, and if he does know and neglects or refuses to prevent the corruption of voters he is unfit, if elected, to occupy office.

The man who hitches his horse to a freight car on a railroad and stands agape when the car and horse disappear around the curve is closely related to the man who sits on the end of a limb while he saws it from a tree.

About two hundred and thirty thousand hunters will take out licenses this year. There aren't two hundred and thirty thousand pieces of game in the state, so about two hundred thousand hunters will go home empty handed at the end of the season.

LAMP SHADE EFFECT.

The Salient Costume Point is the Flare.

SUITS OF BLUE CLOTH AND SATIN.

Costume, suit and wrap fashions for the fall season are characterized not so much by novelty of form as by novelty and beauty of materials and colorings. The oriental form is still maintained, but the eastern influence is lessening considerably and is already on the decline from a novelty standpoint. Women of good taste are demanding liberation from too uniform a dress, and there will be more individuality than heretofore from the Paris dress makers. Each big maker will stand for what is his conception of the proper dress for the fashionable woman of 1913-14. Despite this variety, however, there is an accordance. Thus, while some makers show long coats and others short jackets, the two seemingly opposed forms are brought into harmony through the fact that in the long coats there is nearly always a break at the waist line, brought about by a girdle, the cut of the waist, etc. One of the new ideas is the hip flare or lamp shade effect. The charm of this costume is the lamp shade effect in the coat and on the skirt. The model is developed in blue cloth and satin, and the collar and cuffs are of seal skin.

The Accommodating Salt.

There isn't a better friend in the household than common salt, and one can't begin to remember the half of the things it will gladly do for us if but given the opportunity.

Salt sprinkled over a carpet after it is swept will brighten the colors and kill germs.

A pinch of salt in the water will help to keep cut flowers fresh.

To clean a white knit sweater or shawl put it into a flour bag containing equal parts of flour and salt and shake well. No washing will be required after this process.

For cleaning enamel bathtubs, etc., rub with a cloth saturated with kerosene, upon which has been spread a layer of salt. Afterward rinse tub down with warm, soapy water.

Before washing soiled handkerchiefs allow them to soak in cold water into which has been put a handful or so of salt. This makes them much easier to wash.

Before washing new goods let stand in salt and water to set the color.

For killing plantain leaves or weeds keep wetting with a strong solution of salt and water. Rock salt or table salt may be used. If preferred, the salt may be sprinkled on the weeds and then wet with a hose. Rock salt is the better of the two for the latter method.

Salt in the bottom of the shoes in winter will help the circulation and prevent the feet from getting cold. This precaution is quite common and effective among Maine woodsmen.

A quarter of a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of water taken a half hour before breakfast is a good laxative and generally beneficial.

The hands of fainting persons are often rubbed with salt to help the circulation.

But of the uses of salt there seems no end.

Lace Underskirts.

There are ever so many dresses for young girls with straight or slightly draped tunics opening over underskirts composed of three or four ruffles of soft lace. These ruffles are sometimes made of fine net edged with a thread in some bright color which is repeated in the sash, or used as a narrow velvet piping for the neck and sleeves. This edging of a couple of strands of colored silk or thread forms a very pretty finish for net ruffling.

Explained.

There is on the south side of Chicago an amusement park named, from the French words "free from care," Sans Souci park.

Two young men passed this park on a street car recently. One of them evidently was a stranger in the city and his friend was showing him about. Said the stranger: "What does Sans Souci mean?"

His friend readily replied, "It's from the Spanish and means 'I should worry.'—Everybody's."

IT'S NOT TOO SOON

TO THINK OF HEATING STOVES

In fact October's chilly mornings and evenings compel one to do so—and how cheerless without heat, then too from a health viewpoint. For the want of a little heat now, ill may be contracted that may cause suffering all winter. As a preventative we would prescribe

One of our OIL HEATERS at $2.50 to $5.00
Or one of our SINGLE or DOUBLE HEATING STOVES at $10.00 to $35.00.

STARVING BOY IS FOUND IN BOXCAR

Saved by Luck After Five Days
In Unique Prison.

New York, Oct. 27. — Nearly dead from starvation, his hands raw and bleeding from frenzied pounding on the walls of his novel prison, Leon Cash, a seventeen-year-old boy living in West Paris, Me., was taken from a freight car in the Oak Point yards of the New Haven railroad. He had been confined for five days without food or water and had traveled in the car from New London, Conn.

Edward Kemp, a railroad detective, heard moans coming from the car. With members of the train crew he forced the locked door. Cash was lying just inside, his face glued to the crack and his strength almost gone. His clothes were torn, his face and hands scratched and bleeding, and he bore other evidences of the terrific struggle he had made to release himself before his strength failed.

He is the son of a farmer and worked on the farm until last July, when he ran away to work with a traveling circus. When the show played Glen Cove, N. Y., he left it to work in a store and saved his money. Two weeks ago, having saved $4, he decided to "see New York."

For five days he tramped the streets, looking for work, but his appearance was against him. His money dwindled, and when it was gone he decided to walk home. He began trudging up the New Haven tracks, past New London. He was weary and footsore, and an open freight car looked up so inviting that he couldn't resist the temptation to crawl in and go to sleep. His memory as to time is vague from that time until he was lifted out of the car in the Bronx.

The boy will recover, it was said at the hospital, and go home--this time in a cushioned car seat.

SAYS RYAN'S $10,000 WENT TO MR. MURPHY

Sulzer Makes Charges Against Tammany Chief.

New York, Oct. 27. — True to his promise, William Sulzer began to "tear things open" with reference to Charles F. Murphy.

He made seven speeches on the east side and was given a demonstration that made the triumph of his return from Albany seem feeble beside it. And the main speech, instead of being vague and general in its charges, got down to bed rock.

He told what he called the "whole story" regarding Allan Ryan and the Ryan contribution of $10,000. He says this sum went directly to Murphy by the hand of Murphy's man, John H. Delaney.

He accused Murphy of having received this money and of failing to account for it, just as he says Murphy did with the $25,000 contributed by Beardsley in behalf of the late Anthony N. Brady.

He declared that Murphy had given outright to "his closest personal friend" $5,000 of the money he, Sulzer, had sent to the Tammany chief.

And he finally asserted that the Ryan interview with him, which figured importantly in the impeachment trial, had been brought about by Ryan's personal request. Sulzer states that Ryan called him on the phone from Suffern at the executive mansion, using the name of Morgan as an alias, and beseeched him to arrange a meeting in New York.

JUDGE GARY THREATENED.

Annoyed by Mysterious Telephone Calls in Chicago, It Is Said.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Threatening telephone calls and messages to the hotel apartments here of Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, caused Judge Gary, it is reported, to call in the assistance of private detectives and to isolate his rooms from outside communication.

Judge and Mrs. Gary have been stopping here during the sessions of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Mrs. Gary denied having received any written communications, according to the report, but the telephone bell in the Gary apartments is said to have rung almost constantly after their arrival until Mr. Gary ordered it cut off and no communication allowed with his rooms unless the person calling fully identified himself.

Rat Liked Carnations.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 27. — "The vegetable rat" of Governor Johnson's

office is dead. The rodent that for weeks has crept into the office of Governor Johnson to nibble a carnation bouquet on the governor's table, passing a trap baited with cheese, was found in a trap on the governor's table, which was baited with the rat's favorite flower.

Woman, 103, Will Vote.

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 27. — Grandma Sarah Todd, sister-in-law of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, aged 103, has registered as a voter. Mrs. Todd, whose husband was the war president's brother-in-law, is as sprightly as a woman thirty years younger. "Why shouldn't I vote?" she asked. "I am old enough."

J. SERGEANT GRAM.

Attacked by Hennessy,
He Denies He Acted as
Messenger For Murphy.

© 1913, by American Press Association.

John A. Hennessy, the Sulzer supporter, who hotly attacked Tammany Hall in the New York mayoralty campaign, made charges against J. Sergeant Gram of the public service commission, which were promptly denied. Mr. Gram said: "I never was Murphy's messenger to Sulzer. I did collect some campaign contributions in 1910 for the Dix ticket. They were turned over to the Tammany campaign committee. The Hennessy charge that I took messages to Sulzer at Albany is foolish, as I had no communication with the man while he was governor."

GIVES UP HER SON'S LOOT.

Mother, Old and Ill, Would Not Keep Money He Stole For Her.

Boston, Oct. 27. — A white haired woman, weak and trembling, entered police headquarters and dropped on the sergeant's desk a crumpled roll of bills. In a faltering voice she said it was money her son had stolen from a downtown store.

Her boy, she declared, had committed the robbery to provide comforts for her while she lay ill in her home. Suspecting that he could not have obtained $66, the amount he gave her, by any honest means, she had drawn the story of his crime from him, told him to hide and had risen from her sickbed to make restitution.

The sergeant upon hearing her story realized that her son was one of two men who entered a store and at the point of a revolver forced the manager to open the safe and hand over $66. While one of the men took the money the other threw a clerk to the floor and held him there. Then the robbers ran out of the building and disappeared.

DOG NABS ALLEGED BURGLAR

Then His Young Mistress Calls Police. Loot Totals $280,000.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—A bulldog and a pretty girl captured an alleged burglar here. The prisoner is William Bastain, who for five years has lived with his young sister, Josephine, in a richly furnished house on the proceeds, the police say, of robberies that have netted him $280,000. Bank books showing balances aggregating $10,000 were found at his residence, where his sister was arrested.

Bastain was crossing a back yard after, it is said, having robbed a house by house. Prance, a pet bulldog, nabbed the man and held on until his mistress, Miss Jennie Debrunner, summoned the police.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

David M. Mortland, former mayor of Rockland, N. J., and for many years a member of the state railroad commission died in Rockland, aged seventy-eight.

Captain Harry McElherry of the Thirteenth company, Philippine Scouts, died at Manila from wounds received recently during a fight between the Scouts and the Moros at Talipao.

Mrs. Tertin C. Little, wife of Dr. Charles S. Little, superintendent of Letchworth Village at Thiells, N. Y., a state institution for the feeble minded, died at the Woman's hospital in New York.

Charles S. Millington, assistant United States treasurer in New York, died at his home in Harkimer, N. Y. Mr. Millington was president of the Harkimer National bank. He served one term in congress.

The death of Mr. Montaguini, reported to the pope from Berlin, has caused great grief at the Vatican. He had been suffering recently from an affection of the throat and was operated on a few days ago.

A. Blair Kellogg, former member of the Board of National bank of Belvidere, N. J., died suddenly at the State hospital at Gravesend Park. He was sixty-six years old and had been at the hospital since Oct. 8.

Leonard Briggs, for seventeen years chief of the Rome (N. Y.) fire department, is dead at his home in Rome, aged fifty-three years. He was a member of the International and New York State Fire Chiefs' associations.

Her Angel Child.

Mother's darling, aged four, was not to be like other boys and learn to use naughty and slangy words. He was not allowed to play with the older boys in the neighborhood for fear his sensitive nature might be shocked at the language they used. One day while mother was busy he slipped over into the next street and played for half an hour with a crowd of older boys. In that half hour he took a complete course in modern language.

On his return mother said:

"Where has my precious been?"

"You should worry and get a wrinkle," he cheerfully replied.

"Dearest, tell mother where you learned such horrible language!" mother exclaimed.

"Aw, good night, shir," came sweetly from the cupid bow mouth.

Then mother commenced to weep, for she realized that her angel child was just a boy after all.—Kansas City Star.

British Lighthouses.

GERARD RENTS A PALACE.

American Ambassador Will Be Fairly Well Housed in Berlin.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The new American ambassador to Germany, James W. Gerard, rented for the embassy premises a house in Wilhelm platz, known as the Von Schwabach palace, formerly owned by a banker of that name. The yearly rental is $15,000. Instead of the $22,500 at first demanded.

The new embassy is finely situated within a very short distance of the imperial chancellery's palace and the German foreign office.

It is well adapted for entertaining, but lacks modern conveniences and therefore extensive internal alterations will be necessary before the ambassador goes into residence at Christmas.

Women's Organs Reversed.

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—The heart of Mrs. Edna Bowman, a patient at the General hospital, is on her right side. Not only is her heart on the right side, but other organs are reversed in position. Physicians said she would never suffer ill effects from the transposition.
